SUMMARY

I'm a Front-end developer often praised for my ability to adapt effectively and pay attention to detail. I work with a variety of web development technologies, including HTML, CSS, React.js, Next.js, and JavaScript. Additionally, I have experience working with tools like Vite, Git, Figma, Firebase, MongoDB and even WordPress. I enjoy debugging, testing, and love keeping up with technology trends. I'm currently available to get involved in new projects, let's collaborate and create web magic.
